

Bet Track Student Workbook

Hebrew for Every Grade, Every Beginning

Ivrit HaOr

LuminaNexus Foundation

Student Name:

Hebrew Name:

Bet Track

Building the Word

This workbook is a living curriculum resource prepared for Ivrit HaOr. It may be revised as the pilot classroom grows.

No student is late to Hebrew. Every letter is a beginning.

How to Use This Workbook

Each lesson includes a Big Idea, teacher language, student language, guided practice, a confidence check, a Chavruta / Havari question, and a closing sentence.

These pages are printable. Students may circle, trace, color, draw, and write directly on the page.

The tracks are doorways, not labels. A student may move between tracks as confidence grows.

Remember the Hebrew Path

Lesson 1

Building the Word

Letters Can Join Sounds

Big Idea

In Bet Track, I begin learning how Hebrew letters help build sounds and words. A Hebrew word is built one small step at a time.

Teacher says: “Bet Track is where Hebrew letters begin working together.”

Student says: “I can build Hebrew sounds and words.”

Learn and Notice

Hebrew begins on the right. Before we read, we find the starting side.

א ב ע מ ש ל ו י ה

Some letters may feel familiar. Some may still need practice. That is okay. Review is strengthening the path.

Practice Together

Circle the Hebrew letters you recognize.

א ב ע מ ש ל ו י ה

Circle every Bet.

Teacher Question

What do Hebrew words begin with?

Student Answer

Hebrew words begin with _____.

Confidence Check

Fill in one or more.

- ☐ I am still remembering Hebrew letters.
- ☐ I can find some Hebrew letters.
- ☐ I can begin on the right side.
- ☐ I am ready to build Hebrew words.
